

1 Cor 1:26-31

26. For brothers, notice your own calling: that not many were wise according to the flesh. Not many were powerful. Not many were well-born. 27. But God selected the foolish ones of the world in order to put the wise ones to shame. And God selected the weak ones of the world in order to put the strong ones to shame. 28. And God selected the insignificant ones of the world, and those of no account – those not being [anybody] in order to put those being [somebody] to shame. 29. In order that all flesh would not boast before God. 30. And because of Him, you are in Christ Jesus – Who became for us wisdom from God – righteousness and sanctification and redemption. So that the one boasting, let him boast in the Lord, just as it is written.
