

1 Peter 5:1-14

¹ Therefore, I – the fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of the Christ and the partner in the glory which is about to be revealed – I urge the elders among you, ² tend the flock of God among you, oversee not by compulsion but willingly, according to God, not in fondness of dishonest gain, but eagerly, ³ not as one lording it over the portion but being an example for the flock, ⁴ and after the revealing of the chief shepherd you will receive the unfading crown of glory.
