

Gal. 4:1-7

¹ I am saying – in the time in which the heir is a child, he differs in no way from a slave, even though he is master of all. ² But he is under guardians and servants until the appointed time from his father. ³ Likewise, when we were children, we were experiencing slavery to the elementary principles of the world. ⁴ When the fulness of time had come, God sent His Son – born from woman, born under the Law ⁵ So that He may pay the release of those under the Law, so that we may receive the adoption. ⁶ Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of His Son into our heart crying out “Abba, Father” ⁷ So that, you are no longer a slave, but you are a son. And if [because] you are a son, you are also an heir through God.
