

James 1:12-15

12. Blessed is the man who steadfastly endures temptation. Because being proved by testing, he will receive the crown of life, which He [God] promised to those who love Him. 13. When being tested, let no one say that "I am tempted by God." For God is untemptable by evil, and He tempts no one. 14. But each one is tempted by his own strong desires, being dragged away and enticed. 15. Then, after conceiving, the strong desire gives birth to sin. Then, when it is finished, sin gives birth to death.
