

John 3:1-15

1. And there was a man from the Pharisees. Nicodemus was his name, a ruler of the Jews. 2. This one came to Him at night, and he said to Him, “Rabbi, we know that you have come from God as a teacher, because no one is able to do these signs which you are doing, except if God was with him.”

3. Jesus answered and said to him, “Truly, truly, I am saying to you, except if he is born again from above, no one is able to see the Kingdom of God.”

4. Nicodemus said to Him, “How is a man able to be born, even though he is old? Is he not able to enter a second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?”

5. Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I am saying to you, except if someone is born from water and spirit, he is not able to enter into the Kingdom of God. 6. The thing being born from the flesh is flesh. And the thing being born from the Spirit is spirit. 7. Do not be astonished because I said to you ‘It is necessary for you to be born again from above.’ 8. The wind blows wherever it wills and you hear its sound, but you do not know from where it is coming and where it is going. In the same way is everyone having been born from the Spirit.”

9. Nicodemus answered and said to Him, “How are these things able to be?”

10. Jesus answered and said to him, “You are the teacher of Israel and you don’t know these things? 11. Truly, truly, I am saying to you that we are saying what we know, and we are testifying about what we have seen, and you are not receiving our testimony. 12. If I said the earthly things to you and you are not believing, then if I say the heavenly things to you, how will you believe? 13. And no one has gone up into Heaven except the One coming down from Heaven – the Son of Man. 14. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, in the same way, it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up, 15. So that everyone who believes will have eternal life in Him.”
