

Matt. 7:13-14

- I. Enter through the narrow gate (13a)
- II. Reason: Even though this way is harder, it leads to life, not destruction (13b-14)
 - A. Neg: The way to destruction is wide and easy, [and many find it] (13b-d)
 - 1. The way is wide and easy (13b-c)
 - a Because the gate is wide (13b)
 - b And the way is spacious (13c)
 - 2. [that is – the way] the one leading into destruction (13d)
 - B. Pos: Few find the way to life, because it is narrow and hard (14)
 - 1. The way to life is narrow and hard (14a-b)
 - a How narrow is the gate! (14a)
 - b And the way leading into life is constricted/difficult (14b)
 - 2. And those finding it are few [in number] (14c)